HOCKEY TEAM DEFEATS CORNELL

Wins Victory at Ithaca in First Game Played This Season.

SCORE 2 TO 0

Hamilton College's hockey team defeated Cornell at Ithaca, 2 to 0, Saturday afternoon, in Hamilton's first game of the season. The game, played on Beebe Lake, was called at 3:15 p. m. The first half went rather slowly as both teams had difficulty in getting started. After the ten-minute wait between halves Hamilton began its attack and the game was full of action from then on. Capt. Kaiser made the first point for Hamilton. He shot for the Cornell goal and the puck hit Young, deflecting into the net. The second goal came a few minutes later, when, after a strong attack against the Cornell defense, Thompson scored just five minutes before the final whistle. The game was witnessed by over 3,000 persons grouped in the natural amphitheatre which surrounds the lake.

Hamilton had difficulty in dribbling the puck due to the lack of high sideboards. The puck went over the side several times.

The line-up:

Hamilton (2).	Cornell (0).
R. J. Reeder, g.	Whitehall, g.
Marlowe, ld.	Finn, ld.
R. G. Reeder, rd.	Rollo, rd.
Clark, rf.	Barker, rf.
Capt. Kaiser, c.	Thornton, c.
Thompson, lf.	Young, lf.

Goals—Kaiser and Thompson. Referee—Stratton. Time of periods—15 minutes.

1921 PROM PLANS COMPLETED

Final plans for Prom week have now been completed. There will be dances in the various fraternity houses the evenings of January 31 and February 2. Prom will be held in the Soper Gymnasium Tuesday evening, February 1. Tuesday afternoon the Sophomore Class will give a tea dance in the D. U. House. Wednesday afternoon is turned over to the Musical Clubs for their usual concert in Commons Hall. Elliott of Philadelphia is furnishing the Prom programs and the Junior Week books.

The decorating of the gymnasium will be done by The Payfitch Sales Co. of Utica. Schwarz's eight-piece orchestra from New York will provide the music at Prom, and Mrs. King will again serve the dance supper. A picture of the Prom will be taken for publication in the 1922 Hamiltonian.

Chairman Pope, '22, has made arrangements with the officers of the College Y. M. C. A. so that the guests of members of the neutral body during Junior Week may room in Silliman Hall.

CHARLATANS PLAY IN UTICA

The Charlatans presented two plays, "A Night at an Inn" and "Food", at the Yahnundasis Golf Club Tuesday night, before an audience that filled the ballroom. The occasion was the annual meeting of the Club for the election of officers. The Charlatans were the guests of the Club for dinner.

The presentation of the plays was a distinct success. It is said that "A Night at an Inn" made a stronger appeal to the audience that it has done this year. It is hard to say whether the credit for this ought to go to the players or to the audience. It is safe to say that both had a part in the success. The success of "Food" was not so pronounced, but this may be laid to the farcial quality of the play itself, rather than to the quality of the production.

Barry and Clark, as The Toff and Sniggers respectively, played two difficult parts with much skill. Pritchett and Griffith played Basil and Irene with even more finish than last year.

Plans for the early spring are well under way. The new plays are in rehearsal, and Manager Seaver is at work on the schedule. A performance in Utica under the auspices of the New Century Club has already been arranged, but a date has not been set. Tuesday, January 25, was suggested, but on account of examinations has not been approved. During the spring there will probably be week-end trips to Rochester, Buffalo, and Syracuse. The Reverend A. N. Petersen, '95, is trying to arrange for performances at Sing Sing Prison and at the Vanderlip School in Scarborough.

The casts for Tuesday night's performance were as follows:

"A Night at an Inn——The Toff, Walter R. Barry; Sniggers, A. Bailey Clark; Bill, Charles S. Langtry; Albert, G. Elliott May; Idol, William H. Spice; Priests, William B. Baer, J. L. Albertson, A. L. Kaiser.

"Food"—Basil, William L. Pritchett; Irene, William M. Griffith; Harold, Walter R. Barry.

HAMILTON'S BASKETBALL FIVE DEFEATS AMHERST, 24-17

Buff and Blue Team Betters its Record by Victory Over Amherst—Game is Fast with Few Personal Fouls—Lawler Makes Highest Score—Captain Cowan and Doane Play Excellent Game.

Hamilton's basketball team defeated Amherst Saturday night, 24-17, at Amherst. The Buff and Blue men outclassed their opponents in every department of the game, which was fast throughout with few personal fouls.

At the whistle, Garner gave the tip-off to Lawler, who carried the ball down the floor for the first basket of the game. Before Seuler had made Amherst's first basket, Hamilton had run up a total of seven points. Toward the end of the half, Amherst started a rally and succeeded in tying the score. During the last few minutes of the first half, the Buff and Blue shot three baskets in succession, making the score 19 to 10.

In the second half, Amherst braced and played a much better defensive game than in the initial period. Garner, who had been taken from the game in the first half with a twisted ankle, replaced Keehn. During this period, the scoring by both teams was poor, each side losing easy shots from beneath the basket. The final score was 24 to 17.

Praise for the victory over Amherst must be equally divided among all of the men who played. Captain Cowan played his usual good game, with seven points to his credit. Lawler showed his best form for the season thus far. His total of five fouls and two field baskets was high score for the evening. Doane and Garner fitted well into the teamwork of the Hamilton aggregation.

The Amherst team was playing the first game of its season, but showed good form for such an early game. Its passwork seemed to lack the certainty of Hamilton's, and its shooting from the floor was not at all steady. Seuler at left forward was the best man on the Amherst team in handling the ball and shooting baskets. He shot three baskets from the floor.

Coach Ziel intends to hold practice daily during examinations in preparation for the first game of the new term. Tufts College will be on the Hill to meet the team February 5. It is expected that Stern, '22, who has been disqualified because of delinquencies, will be in the lineup after the mid-term examinations.

The line-up and score:

AMHERST (17).	F.B.	F.P.	T.P.
Seuler, lf.	3	0	6
Nail, rf.	0	7	7

Referee—Garland. Time of halves—20 minutes. Score at half time—Hamilton, 19; Amherst, 10.

MYERS LECTURE FEBRUARY 12

The next Myers lecture will be given in the Chapel on the evening of February 12. The speaker will be Doctor James F. Kemp of Columbia University. His subject has not yet been definitely decided upon, but the lecture will be on a general geological subject along an economical line. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides.

Dr. Kemp is probably the foremost geologist of this country. He is the head of the School of Mines of Columbia University, President of the Geological Society of America, a prominent consulting geologist, an author, and a contributor to many geological journals.

—Ralph W. Leavenworth, '14, of Cleveland, Ohio, was a recent visitor on the Hill.

—The trustees of Allegheny College have decided to set aside $100,000 of the century endowment for physical education. Athletic leaders have stated that with the $100,000 the College should be able to develop an athletic program to such an extent that Allegheny will, in time, be in the front ranks.

—An Eastern States college championship tennis tounament will be held at Cambridge, Mass., on May 13, 14 and 16, subject to the approval of the Harvard Athletic Committee. The tournament, which is Harvard's idea, will determine the championship team rather than the best individual player. Among the colleges invited to compete are Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Colgate, Cornell, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, and Brown.

—The death of Myron H. Beach, '53, of San Antonio, Texas, has been recently reported.

With the Colleges

—In the Alpha psychological tests given the members of the Freshman Class at Dartmouth, the results show the average to be ten per cent higher than the class of 1923. Average this year was 159 while last year's average was 149. "The Dartmouth" further their states that of the lowest 24 in last year's records only ten are at present in college, while of the 102 highest but two have left college.

—The annual Williams-Wesleyan-Amherst debate was won by Williams, whose teams defeated Amherst at Williamstown and Wesleyan at Middletown. The debate at Amherst was won by Wesleyan, which finished second, winning and losing once. The question for debate was "Resolved: That all nominations for elective offices should be made at non-partisan direct primaries."

—The Harvard football team cost $40,847.81 during the year just closed. This includes the trip to the coast for the Oregon game. The Crimson athletic fund shows a deficit of $6,000.

—The University of South Carolina has accepted a challenge from Harvard University for a debate to be held in Columbia between April 17 and 24, according to an announcement by President W. S. Curren. This is the second debate scheduled for spring at the University, the other having been arranged with New York University in New York City.

The Y. M. C. A. Movies

The College Y. M. C. A. held last Saturday night in Commons Hall the first of its new series of movie shows. In its aim to hold these shows weekly, the Association deserves the hearty support of the Undergraduates.

The Y. M. C. A. management plans to hold a picture show practically every Saturday night of the college term from now until the end of May. Feature films are to be secured, most of them being 1921 releases. Well known stars will appear in these pictures, and many of the productions may be seen on the Hill before they are shown at the Utica playhouses.

The Y. M. C. A. is running these shows at cost. Saturday night's show paid expenses, and it is hoped that the men in College will attend in sufficient numbers so that the cost of the entertainments may be covered by the admission fees.

These entertainments will enable men to see a good show on the Hill Saturday evening without making a trip to Utica. Besides saving time and money they will provide the opportunity for entertainment and a social good time.

The old plea that "there's nothing doing on the Hill on Saturday night" need no longer be used by the undergraduate who seeks recreation and a change. The program of these shows will include each week a feature, an educational film, an animated cartoon, and a comedy. The Y. M. C. A. is going to considerable expense to entertain the Undergraduates on Saturday nights, and these picture shows should be well attended.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE FACULTY

The following resolutions on the death of Professor H. C. G. Brandt were adopted January 13 by the Faculty:

In the death of Professor H. C. G. Brandt on Monday, December 20, 1920, the Faculty of Hamilton College laments the loss of its oldest and most distinguished member. Since his appointment to the chair of Modern Languages and Literatures in 1882, his service has been continuous, zealous and efficient, and has extended over a longer period than that of any other member of this body save Edward North. During these thirty-eight years he upheld uniformly the highest ideals of scholarship and education. By his published work, his eminence as a student of language received widest recognition. The broadest and soundest knowledge was united in him with love for the College, zeal for her advancement, and devotion to her interests. His position in the Faculty was for many years unique and unquestioned. Always friendly with his colleagues, seeking ever their cooperation and support, he endeared himself to each and all.

Now that he has passed from us, the Faculty of Hamilton College desires to place on record its sense of the value of Professor Brandt's services, as well as to testify to its admiration for him as a teacher and a colleague, and its affection for him as a friend.

Be it therefore resolved that these resolutions be spread at large on the minutes of the Faculty, and that a copy thereof be sent to the family of Professor Brandt.

WALTER HAMPDEN TO PLAY IN UTICA

Walter Hampden, generally regarded as the greatest Hamlet of today, is returning to Utica to play a two-day engagement at the Gaiety, Monday and Tuesday, January 24 and 25. Mr. Hampden is the gifted young actor who electrified New York two seasons ago with his remarkable portrayal of Hamlet, winning such support from the critics and public as to enable him to break all records since the days of Edwin Booth, with a run of 68 performances of the tragedy.

Since then, Mr. Hampden has added several plays of the Shakespearean cycle to his reprtoire, and of these "The Merchant of Venice" and "The Taming of the Shrew" will be shown in Utica. While his interpretations of the complex roles of Petruchio and Shylock are perhaps not as widely known as is his Hamlet, both are distinctive creations. Because of artistry in presenting these, Mr. Hampden was labelled "the ablest actor in Shakespearean parts now to be seen on the American stage" by the Boston Transcript, during his annual engagement in that city, just concluded.

"The Merchant of Venice" will be presented on Monday night and "Hamlet" on Tuesday night. "The Shrew" will be given at a special matinee on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hampden's Shylock, it might be added, while declared "the finest Shylock since Henry Irving" by the Washington Herald, is an entirely different interpretation from any portrait of the celebrated Jew seen before on the boards. His Petruchio is vastly amusing, the play being unfolded at a rapid tempo in a broad farce vein.

WINDOW PANES

(Amherst Student)

Most clothes unmake the man. Chrysales of character are bewound with fuzzy cocoons, belted and overbepocketed—only an occasional rattle betrays the existence of worthwhile life within. Resultant butterflies are at least not submerged in crudity.

It is an age of festive golf trousers, of intricate brogue, and of hair parted moistly in the middle. Four buttons are more vital to existence than the four Apocolyptical centaurs. Smoothness is the Nirvana of the college man as well as the criterion used by the more deadly of the species.

All of which is more or less as it should be. Philosophers have been known to rant that we know nothing and that appearance is everything. Human beings, particularly the undergraduate variety, however much their unthinking souls may revolt at such heresy, when it comes to actual life, practise it. Amherst's social system has engendered a supremacy of the external over the internal and the eternal.

Fledgling seekers for the absolute usually forget the relative. We live in an environment, and must adapt ourselves to it, however piquantly we may disapprove thereof—or we provide new examples for the working of Darwin's famous formula. Up and on, ye amateur aesthetes! But bear ye in mind that windows must not be too carefully polished—else they become transparent.

—The debating team of Bates College recently challenged Princeton University and was accepted. Last year Bates defeated Harvard in debate.

Y. M. C. A. PICTURE SHOW HELD IN COMMONS

The first Y. M. C. A. moving picture show for the new year was shown to a large audience at Commons last Saturday evening. The picture was "Stop Thief," starring Tom Moore. The Y. M. C. A. has secured a large number of first class films from the Goldwyn Producing Corporation and these will be shown during the rest of the college year. If the College will heartily support the efforts of the Y. M. C. A. to secure good pictures and will come out to the regular Saturday evening shows, good entertainments may be obtained at comparatively small expense, without leaving the Hill.

The hearty cooperation of every man in college is necessary for the success of the plan. The fact that high grade pictures can be seen here on the Hill at much less expense than a trip to Utica theatre would involve is a convincing argument for the endorsement of these entertainments by the men of the College. Many of the pictures shown during the coming year will appear at Commons before they are run at the Utica theatres. Films of this character are naturally expensive and the Y. M. C. A. will require the support of practically the entire college body in order to carry out is program for the rest of the year. Some first class films have been secured, as well as some clever comedies. The college will have a chance to see many well known stars including Tom Moore, Pauline Frederick, Jack Pickford, Will Rogers, and Madge Kennedy. The Y. M. C. A. is now negotiating with the Pathe Film Company for films taken on the Hill at the time of the N. Y. U. football game.

The program for the rest of the year follows:

Feb. 5, Going Some.

Feb. 12, It's a Great Life.

Feb. 19, Madame X, featuring Pauline Frederick.

Feb. 21, Milestones, with an All-Star cast.

Feb. 26, The Man Who Had Everything, featuring Jack Pickford.

March 5, The Girl with the Jazz Heart, featuring Madge Kennedy.

March 12, Cupid the Cowpuncher, featuring Will Rogers.

March 19, Officer 666, featuring Tom Moore.

April 9, Honest Hutch, featuring Will Rogers.

April 16, His Own Law, featuring Hobart Bosworth.

April 23, The North Wind's Malice.

April 30, The Penalty.

May 14, The Revenge of Tarzan, featuring E. W. Burroughs.

May 21, The Branding Iron.

May 28, Just Out of College, featuring Jack Pickford.

BUFF AND BLUE LOSES TO COLGATE

Maroon Basketball Five Defeats Hamilton Quintet in a Game Marred by Numerous Fouls.

SCORE 59 to 37

In a game which was marred by numerous personal fouls, the Buff and Blue basketball team was defeated by the Colgate five at Hamilton Tuesday night, 59 to 37. Early in the game the Maroon used some clever passwork which baffled Captain Cowan's men, and the first half ended with the score 26 to 15.

Over-zealous playing by the Hamilton team resulted in the retirement of Cowan, Lawler, and Garner from the game. The entire Colgate second string was placed on the floor during the second half and an interesting contest was staged between the two reserve squads. The work of "Phil" Doane was the outstanding feature of the latter period.

Mosher, center, was the chief point gainer for Colgate, with Herman a close second. Captain Anderson caged one field goal and eleven fouls. The work of Doane was the best for Hamilton, with Cowan playing a good game at guard. Garner put up a good fight against the towering Mosher. Lawler was high point man with two field goals and six fouls.

—A three-year agreement for football games between Cornell and Dartmouth will become effective next fall. The game next fall will be played at Ithaca, it is expected, and that of 1922 at Hanover. In 1923 the game will go to a neutral field, probably New York.

—A student subscription of $600 makes basketball a certainty this year at Middlebury College.

NEW YORK ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HOLDS FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL DINNER

The New York Alumni Association held its 53rd annual dinner at the Hotel Savoy Friday evening, January 14. There were 148 alumni and guests present. During the dinner the College Quartet sang a number of selections and was well applauded. Doctor LeRoy B. Sherman, '84, president of the Association, was toastmaster.

The speakers were the Honorable Elihu Root, '64; Doctor Roy S. Copeland, Health Commissioner of the City of New York; Alexander H. Woollcott, '09; Doctor James H. Hoadley, '70, and Doctor Frederick C. Ferry, president of Hamilton College.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Recognizing that football holds a place peculiarly its own in intercollegiate sport; that it serves a useful purpose in stimulating undergraduate and alumni enthusiasm for the college; that without any violation of the highest standards of amateur sport it can be made serviceable in broadening the appeal of the college; and

"Recognizing further, that 20 years' football at Hamilton College has not been on a level commensurate with the institution's standing in other intercollegiate activities, it is hereby

"Resolved, By the New York Alumni Association of Hamilton College, that a committee of five men be appointed by the president of this association with instuctions:

"1—To bring this expression of alumni opinion to and secure its endorsement by other alumni bodies, with such other relevant information as the committee may assemble to the attention of the proper authorities of the College, and

"2—To recommend such policy and procedure with reference to football at Hamilton College as shall under the circumstances as determined, seem to them proper."

Conklin Mann, '06, who presented the resolution, made a plea for sufficient physical directors on the Hill to develop a scheme of training which will turn out winning teams. The committee provided for in the resolution was appointed by the President as follows: Paul B. Williams, '08; Conklin Mann, '06; Alexander M. Drummond, '06; Lee H. Bristol, '14, and Richard W. Kaiser, '20.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Daniel Burke, '93; treasurer, Daniel W. Redmond, '01; secretary, Harry C. Bates, '12.

Doctor Ferry was the last speaker of the evening. He reported on the present condition of the College and stated that Hamilton is now accommodating all the students possible with its present equipment.

Much fine Hamilton spirit was shown at this meeting, and the dinner was one of the best in the history of the Association.

The meeting closed with the singing of "Carissima."

K. P. CANDIDATES NAMED

The Seniors eligible to write orations for the Clark Prize Contest have been announced as follows:

TRINITY'S QUINTET DEFEATS HAMILTON

Buff and Blue Loses Close Game to Trinity at Hartford.

SCORE 32 TO 29

Trinity's basketball team won from the Hamilton five at Hartford, Friday night, by the score of 32 to 29. Both teams scored the same number of field goals but the foul shooting of Canner turned the balance for the defeat of the Hamilton team.

In the first half, the Buff and Blue did not get any team work under way and was decidedly outclassed by the Trinity team. The passwork of both teams was slow and the shooting very ragged. During this half, Canner shot ten fouls and one field goal.

The latter half was a reversal of the first with the Hamilton team outclassing its opponents on the floor. Each man on the Buff and Blue team managed to drop in at least one basket. The team was slowly creeping up on Trinity's lead when the whistle blew.

The foul shooting of Canner was the outstanding feature of the game. Next to him, Bolles at left forward and Mills at center were the best men on the Trinity squad.

None of the Hamilton team played up to form during the first half, but during the last part of the game better form was shown. Cowan scored thirteen points, and Lawler dropped in three field goals. Garner worked well in breaking up the pass work of the Trinity five.
